

Marnus Beylefeld, Director, Sapere Forensic and Sapere Valuation

BIO/SUMMARY

I specialise in valuation services, litigation support and forensic accounting assignments in complex cases.

I have presented oral expert testimony in arbitrations, the High Court, Family Court, and District Court of New Zealand and have been appointed as an independent expert by the New Zealand Law Society. I have conducted damage assessments, forensic accounting assignments, and valuation assignments in New Zealand, Australia, the Pacific Islands and Southern Africa.

In 2008 I transferred from KPMG South Africa to KPMG New Zealand. In 2010 I joined the practice that would later become Crowe Horwath where I led that firm's forensic accounting and valuation practice in New Zealand as a partner since 2015. In 2018 I joined Sapere Research Group's Forensic and Valuation division as a Director.

Non-dispute valuations

I have more than 20 years' experience in performing, or assessing, or analysing, the valuations of assets, shares, options, or other derivative instruments. Many of these valuations are not part of any litigation but are commercial (uncontested) valuations for contemplated transactions or financial reporting purposes.
